If you want to get something off your chest about life in Andorra, AndAds recommends a letter to the Diari d'Andorra. Unlike writing to The Times, you are almost certain to get into print and it is read by all the politicians. You can even write in English and they will translate it for you. Send your letter by email to diariobert@diariandorra.ad. You should add your name and telephone number in case there is any doubt about the translation, but these will not be published if you ask to remain anonymous.

Language Sopars needs more English-speakers. The idea is that English-speakers and Catalan-speakers meet for supper. For the first 30 minutes, they all speak English, then a whistle blows and for the next 30 minutes they all (try to) speak Catalan, and so on. It is a good laugh and you might even learn some Catalan !

At the same supper, there are some Spanish speakers in case you want to improve your Spanish.

The next languagesopar is on the 30th June at 8.30 pm in the Hotel Princep. If you are interested call 61 38 69.

Pic Negre Assault.

Due to the amount of snow still around the CIA trip to Pic Negre is now to be attempted on Tues. 1st July. The plan is to depart from La Rebassa café around 10.30am and take the 4-wheel drive vehicle up to Pic Negre. From there we can walk around admiring the view, the flowers and the fauna. If we get 26 people then the cost will be around ten euros each. Hopefully we can have coffee and buns up there but if we can't get boiling water then we might have to drink cava instead. Additionally, we could either take our own picnics up there or have lunch in the cafe at La Rabassa afterwards. This trip can only be attempted in good weather so the date might have to be changed at short notice. For an extra thrill, there's always the chance to ride the TurboTronc in the afternoon. If anyone is interested in visiting this remote area, please contact me: Gaye Keep at gckeeep@andorra.ad or on 839070

The reason for that is geographical. Their OIL is located in The North Sea. Their DIPSTICKS are located in Westminster !!! “
