English-speaking mums group - all nationalities welcome!

Got young children? Just moved to Andorra? Already here and just had or just about to have a baby? Come along and meet up for a coffee, a chat and a play - we're a friendly group of mums of all ages and backgrounds and we'd love to get to know you too. We try to organise things with the kids (trips to the park, swimming, activity centres) and things without the kids (a coffee, meals out - and I'm still working on organising a pub crawl and a trip to the theatre...) If you'd like to find out more contact me, Sandra, on 364153 or sandra@potent.uk.com to find out when and where we're meeting up this week.

From Ian Woodall:

Just a quick note to let you know that I will be leading a small group of friends on a climb of Mt Kilimanjaro as well as a trek to Everest Base Camp in Nepal during April 2011, and strong walkers of all ages are welcome to join us. Further information is available from me at ian@ianwoodall.com.

CHRISTINE'S RECIPE. PORK CHASSEUR, Quick and full of flavour

12oz pork, fillet is the best as it only needs brief cooking, but you can use any cut, even chops.

Marinade: mix together 1 Tbs wine vinegar, small onion chopped, clove of garlic, crushed. ¼ teasp salt, and ¼ teasp mixed herbs.

Place the pork in the marinade for several hours or overnight. Drain, then fry briefly, add 6 oz sliced or quartered mushrooms and sprinkle teasp of flour for thickening. Fry around for a few minutes, then add, stirring until boiling, 1 Tbs tomato puree, ½ pint good stock and the marinade. Cook for just 20 mins until flavours combine

A former company owner has applied to a US District Court judge for permission to transfer $1.3 million from an account in Andorra to help pay for his defence in racketeering and other charges. If he succeeds he still has to persuade the Andorran authorities to release the money because of the criminal case.
