It seems that some people and some computer keyboards still have difficulty with the euro symbol, €, even though it has been around for about fifteen years. If you cannot find € and you have a UK keyboard, try holding down AltGr (the key just right of the space bar) and then press 4. The same with some other keyboards, except that it is 5 or e. If that does not work hold down Alt (the key just left of the space bar) and press 0128 on the numeric keyboard, if you have one. (For the inquisitive, try holding down AltGr and then typing each of the other keys).

BE WARNED

The French are planning to double the number of radar traps in 2012 and to remove the warning signs. They have also announced a crack-down on the use of mobile phones by drivers.

CHRISTINE'S RECIPE

My favourite strawberry dessert is Strawberry flan. Buy or make a rich shortcrust pastry flan case. If you paint the inside with egg white and pop it in the oven for a few minutes, it will help stop the juices softening the pastry too soon. Using whole fruit, arrange them tightly in circles in the flan case.

Push through a sieve, or beat, a 1lb jar of Redcurrant Jelly. It must be Redcurrant. The sieving breaks down the solid jelly consistency which makes it easy to melt. Bring to the boil, immediately take off the heat or the colour will spoil and brush it thickly over the flan. This must be made on the same day that it is eaten.

I have been taken to task by one reader about my list of reasons for not donating to International Vision Volunteers. He thinks that some readers prefer another charity and that others are having trouble with frozen pensions.

He is certainly right and I apologise to those affected. I will add two more reasons:

- Doctors are paid too much (Maybe, but here they are working for free. It's a bargain)
- Too much charity money gets lost in transit (Not with my sister-in-law watching the pennies!)

THAT IS ENOUGH – BUT PLEASE, YOU RICH PEOPLE, BE A GIVER NOT A TAKER
